PREFACE.

In issuing the Glasgow Post-Office Directory for 1896-97, the Publishers beg to express their thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed on the work during the long period of sixty-eight years, and desire to state that as formerly no effort has been spared to render it as accurate and complete as possible. They, however, do not hold themselves responsible for any error or omission.

An improved Map of the Environs of Glasgow will be found at the beginning of the book. The Almanac, Tide Tables, Banks, &c., Statistics of the Population of the City and Suburbs, the Parliamentary and Municipal Voters for 1895–96, with the Parliamentary Divisions of the City and Members of Parliament, also the Voters on Electoral Roll for School Board, and the Rental of Glasgow for 1896, will be found in their former positions. To these have been added a list of the revised Municipal Wards, containing a complete description of the boundaries and accompanied by a table showing the Parliamentary Division in which the new wards are situated, and also the number of the electors in each ward and the rental. In the Streets Directory (pages 611 to 886) the number affixed to the name of each street indicates the Municipal Ward in which such street is situated for electoral purposes. The numbers have been corrected in accordance with the new arrangement of the city wards. At pages 1 to 27 an Alphabetical List of Streets is given; as a handy guide to their situation the capital and small letters prefixed to each Street indicate its position on the Map, and the number affixed its registration district. The large Map, from actual survey by J. Bartholomew, Esq., Edinburgh, has been revised and brought up to date. The Map is placed at the end of the volume, so that it may lie open without interfering with the turning over of the pages.

The various Suburban Districts around the City are given, as formerly, revised and corrected. The Burghs of Govan, Kinning Park, and Partick are incorporated with the General Directory.

In the Appendix will be found useful details regarding Postal and Telegraph arrangements, together with Local and General Intelligence; and the Publishers beg to thank the gentlemen connected with the various Institutions and Public Offices for supplying much useful information. Specially would they desire to acknowledge the kindness of Mr. James Henry, City Assessor, in furnishing an advance copy of the Revised Municipal Wards for insertion, otherwise (owing to the necessity of going early to press) this valuable information could not have appeared in the present issue.

The printing has been done, as usual, by Mr. Mackenzie, Howard Street, and the binding by Messrs. Gowans & Gray, Ann Street.

All communications on Directory business will have prompt attention on being addressed to the Editor.

Post Office, Glasgow, May, 1896.

A Coloured Plan of Glasgow showing the Revised Wards is now in course of preparation, and will be issued shortly.

GENERAL INDEX.

The pages indicated by Numeral Letters will be found in the front portion of the Directory.

INSURE.—Because the cost is trifling and the freedom from anxiety great. Burglars are busy at all seasons, but particularly so during the Holidays and Winter Months.

UNOCCUPIED RESIDENCES.—Contents of Residences left vacant during Holidays can be insured against Burglary and Housebreaking. Hints to Householders, indicating how Dwelling-houses should be protected when left vacant, will be supplied upon written application to the Office.

A NEW DEPARTURE.—This Branch of Insurance Business is quite new, and many Agents are building up large and profitable Agency Connections by judiciously bringing the advantages of Burglary Insurance before Householders and the owners of Valuable Property at opportune times.

INFLUENTIAL AGENTS WANTED.—By merely enclosing the Prospectus of the Security Company with their Fire and Life Renewal Notices, Agents who already act for Fire and Life Offices can obtain Burglary Proposals. Gentlemen desirous of representing the Security Company, Ltd., in any part of the United Kingdom, are invited to make application for Agencies.

From SOUTH AFRICA.

(EXTRACT.)

Two or three pairs of loose well-made Riding Breeches of a material strong enough to withstand the numerous varieties of thorns which everywhere flourish so profusely in the interior — should be taken.

Buckskin, although strong enough, is unbearable in the hot weather—for lightness, combined with strength, there is nothing to equal "KHARKEE." This material deserves special recommendation, as it will generally out-last two or three made of other and perhaps more expensive materials.

From NORTH-WEST INDIA.

(EXTRACT.)

In the early morn beating the jungle for "Chukore," much of the brushwood is composed of a red-berried plant with a leaf-like box, and bristling with very sharp thorns, rigid enough to rend and penetrate anything.

In shooting scrub like this, or any stiff covert, give me "FORSYTH'S SHIKAR," which by experience I have found impervious to the stoutest thorns, or the most aggressive spear grass.

[The usual non-participating Rates of other Offices differ little from these Premiums.]

* A person of 30 may secure £1000 at death, by a yearly payment, during life, of £20 : 15s.

This Premium would generally elsewhere secure £800 only, instead of £1000.

OR, he may secure £1000 by 21 yearly payments of £27 : 13 : 4—being thus free of payment after age 50.

† At age 40, the Premium ceasing at age 60 is, for £1000, £33 : 14 : 2,—about the same as most Offices require during the whole term of life. Before the Premiums have ceased, the Policy will have shared in at least one division of surplus. To Professional Men and others, whose income is dependent on continuance of health, the limited payment system is specially recommended.
